Wm. M. Ebersoldt New Levee Board President

William "Mike" Ebersoldt of Venice was elected president of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District in a special meeting Saturday.

Ebersoldt, the only present Madison county member of the board of trustees, was named to succeed Morris Campbell of East St. Louis following his resignation at the opening of the special meeting.

Campbell, who will remain on the board as a trustee, submitted a letter of resignation in which he gave no specific reasons for resigning the president's office which he had held since January 1969.

Following acceptance of his resignation, Campbell nominated Ebersoldt as board president. The nomination was given a second by George Duff of East St. Louis, Lawrence Tolar, the remaining member of the board, was not present.

Re-Elected This Year

Campbell became board president with the support of the two Quad-City trustees — Ebersoldt and Grant — in January 1970. He was re-elected again this year in a reorganization meeting June 9. The usual January reorganization was delayed when Tolar objected to holding an election at that time and suggested that all officers remain in their posts.

The four present levee district trustees were convicted in a circuit court of cashing payroll checks made out to another person. That meeting was recessed on a charge of cashing payroll checks made out to another person. That meeting was recessed on a charge of cashing payroll checks made out to another person.

Rendleman President as Local University Gains Decentralized Stature

Beginning Sept. 1, each of Southern Illinois University's two campuses will be administered by a university president. In action taken at the Southwest campus Friday, by the SIU board of trustees, the men who have been serving as chancellors of the Carbondale and Southwest campuses were named to become presidents.

Chancellor John S. Rendleman of SIU-SW, will become president of that unit.

Chancellor Robert L. Fisher of SIU-Carbondale, will serve as president until a new president can be located. The search for a permanent president of SIU-Carbondale has been pursued for several months during the university's reorganization period.

The SIU board move was explained by Chairman Harold R. Fisher of Granite City, who is vice-chairman of the First Granite City National Bank, as one which "establishes the autonomy of Southern Illinois University." Carbondale and Southern Illinois University in Madison County.

The presidents of the two university units will report directly to the board of trustees, and "will have complete administrative authority over the operation and internal governance of the two universities," Fisher said.

He added that university bylaws will be changed at the next meeting of the board to authorize the two presidents and to abolish the University Administrative Council, which has served as the interim administrative group during the reorganization of the university which began in 1970.

The University Administrative Council, which has been headed by Dr. Clarence Stephens, also has been charged with the decentralization of the university, a task which is nearing completion, Fisher noted. Dr. Stephens has asked to be relieved of his duties on Sept. 1. Reorganization details which remain to be worked out will be studied by the two presidents, and the chief of board staff who, with Dr. Stephens, have made up the UAC for the past year.

Madison High School Work-Study Program

By MARION BARTOSIAK
Press-Record Staff Writer

An experimental work experience career program will be conducted for as many as 20 freshmen at Madison High School during the new school year. The details were outlined at a meeting of the Board of Education Thursday night.

The program is designed for potential dropouts and is limited to 14 and 15 year-old boys and girls, according to Ronald Davis, who will direct it.

The school district will obtain a $20,000 state grant to finance it.

Davis is to find part-time jobs for the youths, who will be paid at least a minimum hourly wage of $1.80. The youths also will attend class at the high school.

He said St. Elizabeth Hospital has offered to hire two youths and a clean towel service will employ 10 or 12 in a laundry room from 8 a.m. to noon.

Three credits will be given students who complete the program. Davis is to work with the parents regarding their children and will serve as liaison between the school and community.

James W. James, assistant superintendent, said.

Fred Riddle, superintendent, pointed out that the grant is for one year only. He said he was assured that if 10 students succeed in the program, the cost will be more than offset by the impact on state welfare payments.

A proposal by Coordinated Youth Services to contract with the school district to assist in the duties of its transient officers was submitted by C. A. MacMillan, CVS director.

The services, the same as provided for the Granite City School District, would be conducted at a cost of $2,500 for the school year. It was taken over by the board.

John McLaughlin, chairman of the summer school program which ended Friday, reported that 948 elementary and 136 high school students attended, utilizing 31 teachers and 10 teachers aides. In addition, 97 students participated in a crafts and recreation program at two schools.

1896-1971 Resurgence of Business at Plants; Merger Rejected, Housing Authority Created

Beginning Aug. 21, Granite Cityans will celebrate their Diamond Jubilee. This is the 26th in a series on local history.

In the autumn of 1938, the Northern Riverfront Committee of St. Louis interested Army engineers in plans to cut an eight-mile canal through a "belly" of land along the Illinois side of the Mississippi River.

Besides eliminating a treacherous stretch of river, the project would have added 4,000 acres onto northern St. Louis and provided Granite City with a large harbor. The latter drew strong support from industrialists because it would permit low-cost barge shipments of raw materials.

Lieut. Col. P. S. Reinecke, U.S. District Engineer, reported the proposal to the Rivers and Harbors Committee of the House, where it received favorable hearing.

When, in 1939, Congress enacted a War Department appropriation bill which contained an item of $44,000,000 for improvement of inland waterways, many assumed that the Army would dig the canal and harbor. The project lost momentum at this point, however, possibly because of exigencies created shortly after by the national defense program.

Mills hummed with old-time vigor throughout 1938. Granite City Steel Co. employed an average of 2,372 workers during the year, including 721 who had been laid off in 1937 and 1938.

Building permits amounted to $163,934, the number of families on relief fluctuated

Howlett Star Rising Fast; Simon Still Front-Runner But Slumping

By KEN WATSON
Copy News Service

Springfield — State Auditor Michaud, who is Howlett's opponent in winning the Democratic nomination for governor, has taken a sharp turn for the better.

That's the current view beneath the Statehouse dome.

Only a few weeks ago, Capitol cynics were ready to rule him out of the 1972 picture. The sound and fury of the six-month legislative session, in which he had little to do, veiled him from public attention and other politicians monopolized the publicity spotlight.

But, all the time, the affable auditor was quietly making his rounds about the state further adding to his already firm and substantial grassroots strength.

Not only has Howlett been making new friends, but perhaps even more important, has avoided making any enemies.

However, the big reason for the renewed Statehouse interest in Howlett has been the sudden troubles and apparent slipping of the recognized front-runner for the gubernatorial nomination, Lt. Gov. Paul Simon.

To the surprise and dismay of his supporters, Simon in recent days has been floundering about politically, speaking like a man in the battle is bloody.

Simon, in an incredible and untimely performance, managed to antagonize both sides and has had his political knuckles severely rapped by the respective press voices of each.

Perhaps even more damaging, Simon ended up on the side strongly opposed to the Ogilvie administration.

Daley, in fact the mayor is not likely to forget.

Most significant about the off-form Simon performance is that he appears to be failing in one vital requirement in his road to the governor's office — he has been unable to win the support of irritating party regulars and Daley, while still attacking the Ogilvie administration, has been maintaining his image as the front-runner.

Simon is probably still out in front at this stage, but he has stumbled and Statehouse watchers are "hedging their bets."

About every Downstate Democrat of consequence has been careful to be politically friendly to Simon and less careful about how they might treat other aspirants, such as Howlett.

Politics being the game that it is, Howlett can look forward to greetings more warm than usual from the Democratic political field army.

Howlett's chances for winning the top spot may also have been improved by an apparent ebbing of the national tide once again.

John M. Palchiff, assistant superintendent, reported that in-service workshops for teachers will be conducted on Aug. 24-25 and Aug. 26-27, with the second requiring state approval.

The board authorized the Blue School Mothers Club to use the school for meetings this summer to plan the club's 1977-78 program.

During the Middle Ages in Europe, the Marriage of a girl and boy was determined in a family council of two families, when the girl was as young as three years old and the boy about five, the betrothal Ceremony followed, conducted and recorded by the local Priest.

If the families were reasonably well-to-do, they exchanged betrothal rings, but it was not uncommon for them to break a coin with each family keeping its half until the Marriage Vows were said — when the girl was about 12 years old.

The children did not associate with each other during the years between betrothal and marriage and it was considered proper that the Groom should not see his bride until the wedding day.

Fortunately, for all of us, we have a better way for courtship and marriage in modern society and I don't believe any of us would want to take a chance on a "blind date" for a husband or a wife.

There are Wedding Plans to be made, however, and Hudson's is the place to start. There's no need to make a hundred telephone calls about what to do and how to do it. We have all the answers and we'll do every thing possible to help make this wonderful day the most glorious even of your life.

New Chaplain Training Due to New Challenges

By CLAIRE COX
Copley News Service

Drug abuse and racial tensions are the most serious behavioral problems in the military to the American soldier, in the opinion of the man who will soon become chief of chaplains.

Brig. Gen. Gerhard W. Hyatt, who will take command Aug. 1, said in an interview that because these as well as other concerns are basically human relations problems, the Army is taking a new approach to training its clergy.

Instead of lecturing or preaching on moral issues as the chaplain has in the past, he is now being educated and encouraged to lead his men — and their families, too — in small-group discussions in which they try to work out their own solutions to their frictions and problems.

Special training in the behavioral sciences, particularly psychological counseling, is being offered to chaplains to help them minister more effectively to commanders and GIs alike, as well as to enhance their status in the Army, in their profession and in society as a whole.

"Chaplains today are much more sensitive to human concerns and approach them more from the needs of the individual than of the institution," Hyatt said.

"In other words, they are not as prone to apply long-term, old approaches to the people's problems on the basis of what the church or the institution says."

"I think they are more inclined to deal with each individual as an individual rather than give the same pat answers to everyone."

This has brought added acceptance and recognition to the chaplaincy, which only recently was accorded equal status with doctors and psychiatrists on Army hospital staffs. Previously they had been classified as administrative officers.

Moreover, chaplains trained in the behavioral sciences are on the faculties of the Army Infantry and armor schools and are being asked to recommend ways in which moral and ethical concepts can be incorporated in the curricula of these units.

Chaplains have also become counselors on the interdisciplinarity team at the school for problem soldiers at Ft. Riley, Kan.

They are making their influence particularly felt also in encouraging commanders to abandon the old-fashioned "angry training," according to Hyatt, and to replace it with techniques showing greater respect for the dignity of the individual soldier.

The basic functions of the chaplain and the problems with which he deals remain substantially the same as they have been through the years, he noted. It is the approach that has changed, he said, adding:

"Now we go into different aspects of problems that are accentuated today. We have had them with us all the time, but they are a little more in the area of human relations."

"Drug abuse and racial tensions are the accentuated problems today in society as a whole. Essentially both of them are human-relations problems."

"That is why I am so concerned about getting chaplains trained in the behavioral sciences, specifically in the area of human relations, because I think both drug abuse and racial tensions are a result of negative human relations."

To prepare chaplains to handle human problems more effectively, the Army is sending some of its clergymen to school, for master's degrees or to become pastoral counselors or supervisor-trainers.

It is also conducting special seminars and workshops at posts around the world to orient all chaplains in becoming more aware of the problems of humanity so they can deal with them as "problems of individuals composing humanity," Hyatt said.

Some Workers Should Have More U.S. Tax Withheld

Some people are not having enough federal income tax withheld from their paychecks, and may wind up owing the government a large amount when they file their 1971 return, the Internal Revenue Service said today.

The solution? Arrange for additional withholding with your employer, who has been furnished information necessary for that purpose.

The standard deduction, formerly 10 percent, has been increased to 13%. The withholding system allows a 15% deduction for all wage earners who are not entitled to the low-income allowance.

However, the standard deduction is limited to $1,500 on the tax return. For example, the withholding tables assume that a single taxpayer with a $15,000 income will have 13%, or $1,950, in deductions. But when the taxpayer fills out his return and takes the $1,500 standard deduction, or $450 less than the deductions allowed for withholding, he will generally wind up owing tax. The same taxpayer would have a similar problem if his itemized deductions were less than 13% of his income.

Husband-Wife Problem
Another withholding problem arises when both husband and wife are employed. Although each employee the new low-income allowance, the couple is entitled to only one low-income allowance when filing a joint return.

In addition, employees with high incomes may have too little withheld because the maximum withholding rates are limited to 24% for single persons and 22% for married persons. Taxpayers most likely to need more withholding are: Employees who expect to earn more than $11,500 in 1971 and intend to claim the $1,500 standard deduction or itemize deductions totaling less than 13% of their salaries; single employees who expect to earn $15,000 or more in 1971; married employees who expect to earn $25,000 or more in 1971 and whose spouses are not employed, and all working couples.

Employees who are not reasonably sure that enough tax is being withheld should estimate the amount to be withheld during 1971 from the tables IRS has made available to their employers, the IRS said. They should then compare this estimate with the amount of tax liability on their expected income for 1971.

If more withholding is necessary, the taxpayer should file a new exemption certificate

Springfield—State election officials say as of now they do not have any definite information as to how many 18-year-olds are eligible to vote in Illinois elections.

The necessary number of states have ratified an amendment to the U. S. Constitution which gives the 18-year-old the right to vote. It has been signed by President Nixon.

Prior to that time, a U. S. Supreme Court ruling had held that the 18-year-olds could vote only in federal elections such as for President. Now the 18-year-olds can vote in all elections.

Don Ed, head of the Index Division in Secretary of State John W. Lewis' office, which is in charge of state elections, says, "We have no idea as to how many 18-year-olds are eligible to vote, because when they register their registration cards will be integrated with the others and not separated because of age differences."

Duplication Avoided
Those 18-year-olds who registered on the strength of the U. S. Supreme Court ruling were kept separate since they could vote only in federally-connected elections.

This meant that precinct election officials actually would have received two separate election records. One would have been for persons eligible to vote in all elections and one would have been for the 18-year-olds which would vote only in the federally-connected elections.

Now, Ed says, all of this information will be placed in the large master files of the local election officials.

Ed points out that since this will now be one big file, it will be virtually impossible to determine just how many 18-year-olds will be voting in Illinois.

In the last general election, held in November 1970, there were 5,337,692 eligible to vote. However, this was only the 21-year-olds and over.

Just how much that figure will be swelled is difficult to estimate. But one thing is certain: It will be increased by a sizeable margin.

We are anxious to have a trouble-free festival, just as we have had in the past two years. "Although the blatant use of marijuana and drugs is not anticipated, a procedure for such an eventuality should be considered to prevent incidents that have characterized festivals elsewhere."

"It is with this thought in mind that the persons being invited to this meeting are Mitchell Ware, Superintendent, Illinois Bureau of Investigation; Captain Emil Tofant, District 11, State Police Headquarters; John Maerz, Sheriff, Madison County; Roland Griffith, State's Attorney for Madison County; and Carl Foster, Chief of Campus Security."

Nicholas P. Veeder, president of MRF, also has been invited to the meeting, the chancellor said.

A new levee board was elected in both the Madison and St. Clair County portions of the levee district on June 22, but it has been prevented from taking office under the court order allowing the original board to remain in office pending the appeal.

The board Saturday also approved a resolution presented by Ebersoldt setting aside $40,000 as the levee district's share of drainage improvements for the Doherty Slough area. The work is to be done by the Illinois State Division of Waterways. A resolution authorizing an offer to be made to two property owners for the right-of-way needed in the Doherty Slough project also was approved.

Delay SIU Pay Boosts

The Southern Illinois University board on Friday announced that all staff faculties will be frozen until October, when the state legislature will resume its session. The board said it intends to grant pay increases "as soon as possible after appropriate legislation has been taken approving of spending the full amount of the university income fund."

Deputy Falls 30 Feet, Injuries Only Minor

Ronald Tune of Worden, a Madison County sheriff's deputy, escaped injury in a 30-foot fall from a cliff near Edwardsville at 11:30 p.m. Friday.

He and Deputy Gary Burns of Madison were investigating a report of a beer party on Old Prairie Town Road when Tune lost his footing.

Burns found him in a semi-conscious condition and took him to Wood River Township Hospital. Tests were conducted and he was released on Saturday.

The deputies did not find the reported beer party.

Resurgence

among the other paraders could be seen A.F. of L. men walking as individual members . . . Perfect harmony reigned and the two groups were practically, if not actually, one."

On June 12, 1940, residents of Nameoki petitioned the county court for an election to decide if their community should be merged with Granite City.

Submitted to vote on Sept. 10, the proposal was rejected in Nameoki by 743 to 300, but approved in Granite City by 380 to 273. This defeated the merger plan, which was destined to be reversed a decade later.

More resilient than many older communities Granite City arose from the abyss of depression as swiftly as it had fallen.

Families on relief dwindled to 350 (many of them unemployed) in December 1940, and in May 1941, municipal finances were restored to a cash basis. The mills began to roar full of reviving echoes of 1917 and 1929 as they turned steel for railroads, steel for pots and pans, steel for national defense.

At the beginning of 1941, the Industries of Granite City were beginning to boom. In a survey conducted by the East Side Manufacturers Association, it was discovered that in the 17 larger plants, 14,000 employees were working full time.

Already Granite City was beginning to suffer from a housing shortage.

While the Kirkpatrick Homes project, completed, it was rumored around the city that Army officials had earmarked the project for housing of Army personnel. That fell through and a public showing of the 151-apartment project was held July 24, 1941.

Early in the year, the $85,000 new structure for St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Church was dedicated, with Rev. Paul Schoppe officiating. Another church, the Third Baptist, inaugurated a new service to its congregation by furnishing free taxi transportation.

With a record enrollment of 1638 students at Community High School, it was necessary to use even locker rooms as classrooms. To remedy this situation, the citizens voted $185,000 for an addition, which was built between the vocational and academic buildings. Next: World War II.

ning strongly for Massachusetts Sen. Edward "Ted" Kennedy for the presidential nomination. There has been growing interest in Washington Sen. Henry Jackson, considered the major spokesman for the conservative wing of the Democratic party.

Howlett generally takes a conservative stance on foreign policy and on some major domestic issues, such as campus turmoil, while Simon has leaned toward the liberal faction.

A decision on the governor choice is still about six months away and Daley could well rule out both Simon and Howlett.

But the Statehouse view is that one of them will get it, and right now Mike Howlett is once again in serious contention.

BURNED UP LAWN

Bluegrass can survive a long drought but perennial ryegrass gradually dries.

Brown crispy turf is a crisis that separates bluegrass from ryegrass. As the drought continues a growing percentage of ryegrass will die. Fall rains and cool weather will reveal a checkerboard of dead and growing grass. When lawns are a mixture of bluegrass and perennial ryegrass a scramble develops between bluegrass and broadleaf weeds to take over the bare spots.

Occasional deep watering will keep your grass attractive and reduce summer loss from drought. Frequent light watering is more harmful than total drought because it promotes a disease situation and shallow rooting.

Deep watering will wet the soil to a depth of 6 inches. Put pulse cans or coffee cans in the lawn area and stop watering when 1 inch of water collect in the cans.

Water bills feel the effect of extra watering. Deep watering costs about 75 cents per 1000 square feet of turf for each watering. This includes the sewer fee and is based on the water rates in Granite City.

JUMPING FLEAS

When you and your family pet return from vacation you may be greeted by a large family of flea larvae.

Flea larvae develop in rugs, blankets and lint but turn into blood sucking adults just like mosquitoes. While you are away fleas continue to mature and wait for a flock of fleas just waiting for your pet to return. In the home-coming confusion you may become the target and be plagued by jumping and blood thirsty fleas as they try to concentrate on the family pet. Unless you use your pet as a decoy, immediately dust with 4% Malathion dust or 5% Carbaryl dust. Scatter the dust both inside and outside where your pet naps. There is no way you can keep fleas from jumping on you but they will soon slide to jump off to wait for their favorite meal ticket, the family pet.

Bleeding Elms

Oozing sap from recently cut limbs and compressed crochets requires treatment to prevent injury to nearby bark.

Sap pressure causes some trees to bleed from recent pruning wounds or where crochets cause bark and sapwood to be compressed and crushed. Oozing sap contains acids which gradually kills the bark strip covered by the ooz.

Where cut limbs are bleeding you can often stop the bleeding with sealing materials like tree wound dressing and shellac. Bleeding from compressed crochets can be relieved by boring upward angled holes into the compressed area or into the heartwood below the compressed area. Insert a pipe into the hole to drain off the sap. In some cases this tapping is successful when large cuts cannot be stopped.

MIMOSA WEBWORM

Mimosa webworms tie the leaflets of mimosa trees together to produce a brown clump of leaves. Mimosa webworms are small, striped caterpillars that use a silken thread to tie a bunch of leaflets together. When the old nest turns brown they add new leaves or start a new nest.

Several generations of worms complicate control. Spray applications every 3 weeks with carbaryl or malathion will provide good control. Concentrate on existing nests but provide coverage to the entire tree. Start your program early.

$158,000 State Grant to Clinic; 3 New Services

Governor Richard B. Ogilvie informed William J. Daumle, director of the Quad-City Center, Madison County Mental Health Clinic, last week that a grant of $158,000 has been awarded for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

It will permit three new services—daytime patient hospitalization in cooperation with St. Elizabeth Hospital, pre-care and after-care teams in cooperation with Alton State Hospital and the Alton center, and development of a 24-hours-a-day crisis intervention service.

"The grant is based upon a careful study of your application by the Citizens' Review Committee and recommendations made by the director of the Illinois Department of Mental Health," Gov. Ogilvie said.

This award represents our commitment to a broad-based system of community-oriented care and treatment which focuses on rehabilitation and quality care at the local level.

The grant is part of a $30 million state budget for mental health care.

Two other important Jubilee meetings are set for the following nights — the Jubilee Celebration Bellies' party at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the ice skating rink and the Jubilee Pageant casting at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Elks Club, Niedringhaus Avenue near State Street.

The Bellies will gather at the conclusion of a 7 p.m. Tuesday "Music Under the Stars" program from the ice rink.

All Granite City women who wish to take part in the 75th anniversary activities are being invited to attend Tuesday's part, where there will be varied entertainment—including Mexican dancers, square dancers, a kitchen band and a singalong—and an opportunity to obtain Belle bonnets, pins and certificates.

Refreshments will be served, Mrs. Margie Hall has announced.

Casting of the "Profiles in Progress" stage spectacle to be presented Aug. 22-26 at Wilson Park, Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Elks Club.

A cast of over 450 people is needed for the pageant, which will trace the history of Granite City from pioneer days to the present. All parts will be cast locally.

Circus rides are to operate at Wilson Park throughout the festival, from Aug. 21 through Aug. 22, it has been announced. Jack Dempsey, special events chairman, has announced that Paul Niebur of the Associated Amateurs is coordinating stores' participation, including a display of special bunting on storefronts.

Mrs. Lucille Pierce will be chairman of historical windows, and Mayor Partney and Thomas Burns are handling Aug. 21 parade arrangements, with more than 40 entries received so far.

Dorothy Davis will head pioneer events, and several "special event days" are being developed.

The first of a series of "promenades" by residents in old-time clothing will take place Friday night, July 23. Jubilee attire for both men and women is available at the 1930 Edison Ave. headquarters.

Smith Auto Division Sales, Earnings Up

A.O. Smith Corp. on Friday reported a 62% increase in profits on a 52% jump in sales in the first half of 1971, compared to the first half of 1970. The firm has an auto frame plant in Granite City.

L. B. Smith, chairman and chief executive officer, announced first-half earnings of $7,317,000, or $2.99 per share, compared to $6,880,000, or $2.78 per share, in the first six months of last year.

Sales in the first half were $240,429,000, compared to $228,640,000 in 1970. For the second quarter of 1971, earnings were $4,037,000, or $1.65 per share, compared to $3,737,000, or $1.51 per share, in the same period last year. Sales in the three months ended June 30, 1971, were $123,605,000, compared to $120,949,000 in the second quarter last year.

Smith said that A.O. Smith units serving the transportation and building industries turned in strong performances in the first half of 1971. The Automotive Division showed a significant first-half gain in sales and profits compared to last year, as recovery from the General Motors strike continued to create high demand for automobile and truck frames.

Top point-scorer for the Paddlers was Kelly Mann, competing in 8-years-and-under division, who won three blue ribbons by earning first place wins in butterfly, backstroke and freestyle events.

The same young man won two other first place awards as a member of the 8-year-and-under middle and freestyle relay teams.

Jones Victorious, 2 Cyclists Injured In Speedway Triple-Header Friday

More than 5,200 fans were on hand as Bobby Jones of Danville swept the super-sprint events at the Tri-City Speedway Friday night in a racing program which featured 12 sprints with late model stocks and professional motorcycles in a triple-header event.

Two cycle riders, brothers Steve and Mike Gardner, were injured in separate mishaps. Jones, who set a new half-mile qualifications record last week in 23.30 seconds, again claimed fast time Friday, 22 of a second off his mark. His time was 23.52 seconds.

Jones won the trophy dash in the sprinters, starting in fourth position and moving out-side in the second turn of the first lap to claim the leader's spot over Bill Utz of Sedalia, Mo., Roy Hibbard of Slater, Mo., and with Spaulding of Ponton Beach, who finished second, third and fourth.

Jones won the sprint feature event in the 100-meter dash, but lost control of his bike in the eighth lap, Utz spun and lost five positions but at the end of the race, taken the second spot and was pushing for the lead. Spaulding claimed third and Hibbard was fourth.

Spaulding brought the crowd to its feet with a fourth turn effort to pass Jon Backlund of Topeka, Kan., in the last lap of the second heat, failing by only one foot. The crowd disagreed with the official determination of Backlund as the winner at the near photo finish. Other heat winners were Paul Gardner, Ron Melton and Ron Melton of Jacksonville.

In the late model division, Spaulding won the trophy dash, his heat result.

His heat result, Paul Gardner, suffered a broken shoulder when he lost control of his cycle in the fourth turn of the expert feature event.

His cycle leaped into the air and he landed straight down, throwing Gardner. The gasoline tank broke from the frame and spilled. The track which had to be burned off before racing could resume.

Larry Bitter of Princeton, Ill., won the junior feature. Bill Goodwin of Belleville claimed the checkered flag in the novice event and Charlie Sealey of Fort Lauderdale Fla. was the winner in the expert feature.

There will be no race at the local speedway this week because of the Joyce Rodeo at the facility. The drivers will compete at St. Charles, Mo., Friday night in a race which will pay double points for the local track. The program includes a 75-lap sprint feature and a 150-lap stock event.

A U.S. Auto Club midweek race set for Sunday at the speedway has been canceled because of poor attendance at the last such event here last month.

Joe Shaheen of Springfield, promoter of three scheduled midweek events here, also scratched the Aug. 21 midweek event but indicated that date may be reserved for a USAC sprint car program.

Tri-City Speedway officials confirmed that negotiations are underway for the sprint program on that date and for a USAC midweek event in September.

Hunting Is Endorsed By Wildlife Society

The sport of hunting has been cited as a desirable and necessary part of conservation in America by more than 5,600 wildlife experts.

"Concerned over increasing animal extermination," The Wildlife Society has given a record in strong support of hunting in the United States," Fred G. Eynden, executive director of the professional conservation organization, reports.

Recent criticisms of hunting have centered around the belief that hunting has a detrimental effect on wildlife populations and that killing of wild animals is unnecessary in the United States today.

"The professional conservationist knows that these accusations are untrue. More than anyone, a conservationist is aware that the hunter plays a vital role in today's wildlife management programs," he said.

Restoration Program
"The hunting fraternity pays more than $200 million for wildlife restoration each year. Being license fees are the backbone of the 50 state fish and game departments."

"An excise tax on hunting equipment provides over $40 million a year, earmarked solely for wildlife. No other group can match these contributions.

"As for the moral question of the killing of wild animals, many people fail to comprehend that these animals will die whether they are hunted or not, and in nearly all cases they will die a much slower and more painful death.

"In the wild, death rates must match birth rates because the population can expand indefinitely. If animals are over-protected, overpopulation results and starvation is the inevitable result."

Wildlife Balance Sought
"Sport hunting is regulated to maintain healthy balances in wildlife populations," Eynden said.

"Seasons are opened only when there is a genuine abundance of wildlife and hunting is needed to bring the population into balance with available food."

"This regulated hunting insures healthy populations of wildlife for the future while providing recreation for 17 million Americans each year."

"The professional conservationist knows that sport hunting poses absolutely no threat to the well-being of any game species. In fact, without the hunter, there would be little, if any wildlife left in America."

"For these reasons, and in the interest of wildlife management and conservation, The Wildlife Society supports hunting and urges education of the public regarding the significance of hunting."

FONDUE FOR FUN, SAFETY

Have fun with fondue cookery but keep it a safe experience by observing a few precautions. Be wary of directions indicating that oil is ready when it bubbles. Oil may smoke or blaze before it bubbles on its own accord. Sometimes bubbles will appear only when food is dipped into the hot oil. If you're using an electric fondue pot, heat the oil about 15 minutes or until it reaches the temperature of 400 degrees F.

When using a non-electric fondue pot, heat the oil in an uncovered pan on the range, and watch it closely. Never heat oil in a covered pan because the oil can easily reach ignition point and burst into flames when you lift the cover.

Your fondue cooking oil is ready when a one-inch cube of fresh bread browns in 40 to 60 seconds. If the oil begins to smoke, it's too hot, and you should remove it from the source of heat immediately.

Use only a metal pot with sloping sides for beef or meat fondue. Reserve ceramic pots for cheese and dessert fondue. Such pots aren't designed to withstand the high temperatures necessary for cooking meat.

Prevent upsets and hot spills by making sure that the fondue pot sits on a secure, rimmed holder and is within easy reach for everyone.

KEEP COOKOUTS OUTSIDE

Occasionally rain can spoil a cookout, but don't let bad weather lead to tragedy. If rain forces you indoors, don't finish barbecuing your meal in an enclosed space.

Smoldering charcoal gives off carbon monoxide—the same deadly gas present in the exhaust of internal combustion engines. Because carbon monoxide is invisible, odorless and tasteless, it can overcome a person without warning.

Charcoal grills are intended for use outdoors where there's plenty of ventilation and no danger of carbon monoxide poisoning. And you invite tragedy when you move outdoor cooking equipment inside closed garages, porches, cabins, tents

Hoggett warns that small hibachi grills can be as hazardous as full-sized patio grills. The gas from as few as 15 burning briquets in a small room can cause death in less than an hour. Only built-in barbecues intended specifically for indoor use have enough ventilation to eliminate danger.

Nicky Cruz to be Speaker at 'Youth Quake' Aug. 5

Nicky Cruz, former leader of New York's most dangerous gang whose life story is portrayed in the movie, "The Cross and the Switchblade," will be the featured speaker at a mass "Youth Quake" at Kiel Opera House, Aug. 5 at 8 p.m.

His life will be pictured in a national television documentary, "No Need to Hide," in the fall. Cruz also is the author of a best seller, "Run Baby Run."

Cruz's "Outreach for Youth" program supports five rehabilitation centers for youth who have experimented with drugs. In 1970 he toured the country speaking to more than 200,000 young people.

The Turning Point Evangelistic Association is seeking to present outstanding nationally-known Christians to the youth of the metropolitan area in an effort to point out the positive values of life instead of emphasizing violence and drugs.

Future plans call for the appearance of Pat Boone and family, Anita Bryant, Bill Glass, former Cleveland Brown football player, and Arthur Blessitt, the minister of Sunset Strip that carried a 200-pound cross across America and more recently moved up and down the lines of war in Ireland trying to arrange a peace settlement between the Protestants and Catholics.

Tickets for the Cruz appearance are $1.50. Tickets purchased after July 25 will be $2. Persons wishing to purchase tickets are requested to send their checks to the association. There are no reserved seats.

ALL-AROUND CHAMPION. Jack Wiseman of Houston, Tex., All-Around Champion Cowboy and Bull Rider in 1969, displays his prize winning abilities on top of a vicious Brahma bull in last year's Jaycee rodeo here. The Texan is among several top ranked cowboys expected to return to the local rodeo arena this Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Tri-City Speedway.

Parade Wednesday to Launch 3-Day Annual Jaycee Championship Rodeo

A host of colorfully-clad cowboys and mounted patrol units are expected to participate in the Granite City Jaycees parade, Wednesday evening through the Quad-Cities to launch the second annual "World Championship Rodeo" which starts the following night.

Tickets, priced at $2 for adults and $1 for children under 12 years, may be purchased in advance from Jaycee members for the rodeo, to be staged Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at the Tri-City Speedway on Route 203 at Interstate 270, Mitchell.

Dave Partney, Rodeo chairman, announced today that 25 members of the Bubbling Springs Mounted Patrol, a St. Louis group of horsemen attired in old-time cavalry uniforms, will take part in the parade.

The patrol will join about 30 riders from the Trailriders Saddle Club, also dressed appropriately in western costumes, the chairman said.

Many individual horsemen also have indicated interest in joining the parade, together with several local organizations which have agreed to enter floats he said.

Among the distinguished participants will be Mayor Mike Sasyk of Madison and Granite City Mayor Donald Partney. Also spotlighted in the official entourage will be Miss Donna Marie Ferro and Miss Beverly Kay Henderson, first and second runners-up in the Miss Granite City Pageant.

The two young women will be representing Miss Granite City-Juanice Alberts—who is competing this week in the Miss Illinois Pageant, at Aurora, Partney said.

"Children's Night"
The rodeo chairman said Thursday night's opening rodeo performance has been designated "Children's Night," with one youngster, 12 years and under, admitted free to the show for each person with an adult ticket.

Starting at the Venice City Hall at 7:30 p.m., the parade Wednesday will proceed along Broadway in Venice to Madison Avenue and north on Madison Avenue to Nameoki Village Shopping Center.

Local organizations still may enter floats or marching units, Partney said. Further information may be obtained by calling the rodeo chairman at 452-7233 during the day, or at 877-8459 in the evening.

The second annual "World Championship Rodeo," sponsored by the Granite City Jaycees, has been sanctioned by the International Rodeo Association. Riders winning various events will receive points toward this year's world championships, Partney said.

Six Events Listed
Events scheduled for the nightly performances include bareback bronc riding, steer wrestling, calf roping, saddle bronc riding, bull riding and a women's barrel race.

Entries will be accepted between 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. Wednesday at Partney's office, 2500 Missouri Ave. A $15 entry fee per event is required and registration forms must be completed to be eligible as a contestant, it was explained.

Top ranking riders from the U.S. and Canada will compete for prize money in all six events, the rodeo chairman said. Many riders who participated in last year's rodeo have agreed to return, he said.

Among the entertainers to be featured in conjunction with the contest events are the "Comanche Fireballs," a mother and son stunt riding team from Waco, Tex., whose thrilling exploits have received the applause of thousands of rodeo patrons throughout the United States and Canada.

Livestock for the local Jaycee rodeo will be furnished by the A & C Rodeo Co., owned by Ronch Heartstill of Salem, Iowa.

State's Vehicles Still Will Use Lead Gasoline

By JOAN MURARO
Copley News Service

Springfield — State-owned vehicles in Illinois will continue running on conventional leaded gasolines at least until next July.

Robert McAlpine, superintendent of the Division of Vehicles in the Department of General Services, said that exploratory bids solicited last November indicated that only two firms would be able to furnish the state with the amount of non-lead or low-lead gasolines required.

New inquiries will be made this November, McAlpine said, to see if the picture has improved any.

But, meanwhile, year-long contracts have been signed to continue purchasing regular and premium grades of conventional motor fuels.

Drive 142 Million Miles
The state purchases an estimated 17.5 million gallons of gasoline a year for state vehicles, which log approximately 142 million miles annually.

The gasoline purchases include both fuels which are dispensed through state pumping facilities and gas, which is bought "outside" from regular retailers.

Since only two suppliers could meet the demand for non-lead or low-lead gasoline, McAlpine said, obviously there could only be two bidders if the state sought to switch over to the pollution-reducing fuels, which would be economically impractical.

Probably 50% of the state vehicle fleet could operate on the low-lead gasoline, McAlpine said, but others could not. This would necessitate storing double amounts of gasolines at each facility, at increased cost to taxpayers just for storage.

Tank Wagon Shipments
In the interest of economy, McAlpine said, the state tries to buy a complete "tank wagon shipment" of 7,000 gallons each time motor fuels are bought, which reduces the cost.

To accommodate this amount, and leave a reserve to operate for another day or two in case a delivery is delayed to a given site, the state has been installing 10,000-gallon tanks whenever new ones are needed. Presently, it costs anywhere from $1,000 to $8,000 or even $7,000 to install a tank, McAlpine said.

Usually, only one grade of gasoline is pumped at a specific site, with all facilities which service state police cars stocking only premium grade.

State police cars, which obtain roughly 80% of their fuel from outside sources, and Department of Public Works and Buildings vehicles at smaller maintenance sites are among gas for a little while each even the chief users of fuel from ordinary retail sources, McAlpine said.

Mrs. Pierce is telling Granite Cityans, "Come on down to the headquarters (1930 Edison Ave.) and join in the fun."

"Hopefully," McAlpine said, "the day will come when the division will be able to have a mouth or so, just to be on hand mechanic at these smaller to pump gas for a couple of hours a day, would cost the taxpayer, would cost the taxpayer, would cost the taxpayer."

"The salary would then be payers far more than buying justified because he could pump the gas at retail."

$50,000 Rail Suit Filed

A suit for $50,000 was filed last week for P. S. Wilford against the Norfolk & Western Railroad in Madison County Circuit Court. The suit was filed by Wilford, who was injured while working as a steam and air on railroad cars. Negligence was charged.

280 Are Completing Summer School Enrichment Program

The Summer School Enrichment Program being conducted at Coolidge Junior High School is in its final week. The program is offered to academically enriched students from the intermediate levels of all public and parochial schools in Granite City.

"It is designed to assist youngsters in learning for the sake of learning and not to gain advance standing in the regular school program," C. L. Bartels, principal for the summer program, explained today.

Seventeen courses are being offered to over 280 students enrolled in the program. All courses are structured to allow the student freedom to work in specific areas within the broader subject area.

Over 50 students are participating in one of the three foreign languages offered—Spanish, German and Russian. Each course is based on the conversational approach of teaching.

One hundred twenty-five students are enrolled in four science courses, consisting of prehistoric times, nature study, human anatomy and the use of scientific equipment.

Latest techniques are used in the art and industrial craft classes. Over forty girls are enrolled in the industrial craft classes.

New classes included for the first time this year are "mathematics to enjoy," human anatomy and an advanced reading course.

"It is really gratifying to witness the enthusiasm shown by the students this summer," Bartels commented.

County Will Not Buy from Firms That Owe Taxes

The Madison County Board of Supervisors last week adopted a resolution, submitted by Assistant Supervisor Dan Church, to discontinue purchases from firms in which persons and corporations in payment of taxes.

County Auditor John Kraynak was asked to prepare a list of such persons and corporations. A contract was awarded to L. Korinek & Sons of Collinsville to remodel the residence at the county sanatorium property on a low bid of $9,112 and another to Garvin Butler Jr. of Granite City for floor tiling on a low bid of $1,341.

The home is to be used as living quarters and offices of the new TB clinic administrator, Floyd Fisher, who was introduced at the meeting.

Arthur "Cooper" Moore, Venice Township supervisor and chairman of the steering committee, reported that a resolution will be presented at the next meeting on sharing the county's portion of income tax funds with townships.

Robert Ford of Wood River commended Harry Thiele of the probation department for his work regarding foster homes, efforts to establish flat rates for the homes and updating welfare rolls by eliminating non-eligible recipients.

The board adopted an amendment to a resolution to revive the proposed county narcotics squad, which previously failed to become fully operational when a federal grant request was turned down.

In regard to $1,000 transfer of funds in the state's attorney's department, Smith reported that 18 members of the department will spend three days visiting all penal institutions in Illinois to better familiarize themselves with conditions relating to their work.

Hospital Sued in Diagnosis Charge
A suit asking adequate compensation to survivors was filed last week against St. Elizabeth Hospital for David Tindall, administrator of the estate of Claretta Mae Tindall, in Madison County Circuit Court.

The complaint alleges that Mrs. Tindall suffered a skull treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital on Oct. 11, 1970, was injured and succumbed on Dec. 15, 1970, due to an improper diagnosis.

Decor Topics--Antique Should Not Be Drilled

By BARBARA HARTUNG
Copley News Service

Q. My mother has given me a very old porcelain Chinese vase which has been in her family for years.

Her parents were missionaries and I believe were given it as a gift. I doubt that it has terrific value as an antique, although it might.

I would like very much to make this vase into a lamp base but I do not think it would be wise to drill a hole through it to provide for the cord. What would you suggest?

A. I agree. Don't drill through it. An outstanding lamp designer gives this advice. If you have a very fine antique (or for that matter, something that means a great deal to you), don't take a chance and have it drilled.

Merely take your vase to a lamp shop and have a lamp base designed with a piece of tubing at the back of the base to support the cord, light and shade.

Then fix the vase securely to the base so that it is merely ornamental. The base could be metal or wood and the scale and shape of it would, of course, be dictated by the vase.

This is a very natural way to use an art object which you might not otherwise use or have space for displaying.

It can illuminate the piece of art, too, in a special way and thereby enhance it.

Be certain that you select a lamp shade that will be compatible with your piece and will not detract from the base.

Q. The work area of my kitchen cabinets is smooth, wood-effect plastic laminate which has become dull from just ordinary use, not from any scouring with abrasives.

Is there something that will bring back a hard, high gloss to plastic laminate?

A. I know of no material on the market that will do that. I have seen waxes on the market for plastic surfaces and perhaps you might try one of these from a hardware store.

However, these generally do not build up a hard surface and are fairly easily worn off under the hard and constant use of the cabinet top.

Some manufacturers of liquid plastic and acrylic materials say their materials can be used on plastic laminate.

If you have a thin place which is not noticeable you could try it out.

However, the liquid plastic or acrylic is very hard to remove if it gets worn in certain areas and you want to remove it and redo.

In order to avoid your problem, the newest plastic laminates today are being offered with more textured and rougher surfaces which hopefully will not show the tiny scratches which are inevitable.

MRS. JOHN C. HOELSCHER, the former Miss Carolyn Leonard Chapin, whose wedding was June 12 at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Lincoln, Neb. Her parents are Dr. and Mrs. Robert Ross of Lincoln and Howard A. Chapin of Cheyenne, Wyo. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred F. Hoelscher of St. Louis County, formerly of Granite City.

Hoelscher-Chapin Wedding Solemnized in Nebraska

Acacia greenery and daisies, roses, statice and gypsophelia, all in shades of yellow, appointed the chancel of the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Lincoln, Neb., for the wedding of Miss Carolyn Leonard Chapin and John Curtis Hoelscher.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. G. Robert Ross of Lincoln and Howard A. Chapin of Cheyenne, Wyo. Mr. Hoelscher's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred F. Hoelscher of St. Louis, Mo., formerly of Granite City.

The Rev. William Van Auker solemnized the 5 o'clock ceremony on Saturday evening, June 12. A program of wedding music was played by Bruce Bengtson.

Identically styled floor-length frocks of chiffon in shades of jonquil and avocado were worn by the attendants, including Mrs. Stephen David of St. Petersburg, Fla., the matron of honor; bridesmaids, Mrs. Jeffrey Vaughan and Mrs. Fred Hoelscher Jr., both of St. Louis.

The bride chose a gown of ivory silk organza over taffeta and Chantilly lace for her wedding. The lace, encrusted with seed pearls and delicate crystals, fashioned the Empire bodice, the wedding band neckline and the flared trumpet sleeves.

Appliques of the lace were repeated on the softly gathered A-line skirt, and bordered the hemline and the train of English net.

The train was caught at back Empire height and descended to cocktail length. A satin bow accented with Chantilly lace held in place her elbow-length veil of illusion and she carried a duchess nosegay of white and yellow roses and gypsophelia.

Following a wedding trip to San Francisco, Calif., Mr. Hoelscher and his bride will reside in Omaha, Neb., where he is associated with Dana, Larson and Ruebel Architects.

The bride was graduated from the University of Nebraska, where she became a member of Alpha Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. His father is vice-president-secretary and treasurer of Granite City Steel Co.

Pyramid Parties Net $60,000

The Pyramid plan to raise money for the Mississippi River Festival has topped $60,000—a fund-raising accomplishment unequalled by similar efforts in other major cities. It was announced Friday by Pyramid co-chairmen Mrs. John W. Fries of Belleville and Mrs. George A. Dickey of West St. Louis County.

The total included a $20,000 donation from the Women's Association of the St. Louis Symphony Society. One of Pyramid's thousands of hosts and hostesses—Mrs. John Kraynak, 2892 Waterman Ave., won a trip to Acapulco, Mexico, as the result of a selection among participants in the project, the Press-Record disclosed last week. Her name was chosen at a party preceding the July 10 opening night concert on the Southwestern campus of Southern Illinois University by Leonard Slatkin, assistant conductor of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, which is scheduled to play 12 concerts at this summer's River Festival.

Mr. Kraynak was invited to a Pyramid party by Mrs. Janet Cravens of Edwardsville. Mrs. Kraynak chose the option of buying out her party at the fourth level for $16, instead of inviting guests to donate an equivalent sum.

The Acapulco trip was provided by Maritz Travel Service and includes air fare and five days and nights for two at the new Princess Hotel.

Miss Janice Lee Stucke, Steven L. Hamilton Wed

St. Elizabeth Catholic Church was the scene of the wedding Saturday of Miss Janice Lee Stucke and Steven L. Hamilton.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Stucke, 1613 Clark Ave. Mr. Hamilton's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton, 2412 Angela Drive.

The ceremony was solemnized at 11 o'clock in the morning, the Rev. Lawrence Mattingly officiating.

The bride wore a pure white organza gown fashioned with an Empire waist of Chantilly lace, a high neckline and long, full sleeves. Tridescant sequins etched the bodice and motifs were repeated on the long skirt which ended in a full sweep train.

A profile of lace daisies secured the bride's tiered veil of illusion and she carried a cologauque of pink roses and daisies.

The attendants, Mrs. Dale Pashea, a sister of the bride, as matron of honor, and Mrs. James Helrich, another sister, Miss Judy Hamilton, the bridegroom's sister, and Miss Beth Gabriel, bridesmaids, were in long gowns of aqua chiffon with floral trim masked with velvet at the high necks on the long sleeves and encircling the waistlines. Pearl combs secured matching veils and they held nosegays of white daisies and pink roses.

Linus Helrich was best man, serving with James Helrich, David Polowick, Robert Schreiber, Edward Moore, and Dale Pashea, groomsmen and usher. The bride's mother chose a long gown of bright pink chiffon, the waist encircled with bands of pink and green satin. The bridegroom's mother appeared in a mint green chiffon gown with white lace trim.

A reception was held at Augustine's Restaurant in Belleville after the ceremony and the newlyweds left for a trip to San Francisco, Calif. When they return they will live at 2533 Stratford Lane.

Both young people graduated in 1968 from the Granite City High School and the bridegroom is presently attending SIU-SW where he is a member of Rho Alpha Fraternity.

Mrs. Hamilton, a former student at SIU, is now employed as a secretary.

Fund Drive at McKendree Raises $103,500

The McKendree College Faces the Future Campaign raised $103,500 for operating expenses during the past several months, according to Duane W. Amburn, Director of Development. He said 1,238 gifts were received during the campaign showing an average gift of $83.60.

While the original goal was $300,000 Amburn said that a savings of $41,000 had been effected on a mortgage payment, $40,000 on current debt service payment was waived by local banks, and a $47,000 unassigned bequest was received this spring which can be used as collateral, thus bringing the cash requirements down to a $68,500 deficit. Arrangements are being made with banking institutions to fund this deficit. McKendree will register for its Fall Term on September 13 for the 1971-72 academic year.

Amburn pointed out that the total operating budget for this past fiscal year amounted to $1,786,000 so the deficit amounts to less than 4% of the total. Still, this continuing deficit operation must be overcome, Amburn said, if a quality program is to be maintained.

Total giving to the college, includes scholarships, endowment, library and miscellaneous, was over 28 per cent ahead of last year's figures with a total figure of $223,330.

Amburn expressed great appreciation to the hundreds of workers who provided leadership for the McKendree Faces the Future Campaign. He pointed out that great gains had been made by the college in public relations values with the alumni, friends, business firms, and church relationships.

Man, Wife Arrested After Disturbance

Mrs. Faye Dowd, 38, of 3243 Maryville Road, was charged with disorderly conduct at home, and her husband, Lee E. Dowd, 39, was charged with having no fire arms identification card when he was arrested at Edgewood Avenue and Killarney Drive at 1:55 a.m. Saturday.

Police said he drove from his home to the site of the arrest and a .38 caliber derringer was found in his possession. Dowd told police he carried the gun as he works nights in St. Louis. Three tires of the car had been shot, apparently with another gun. They were released on cash bail of $100 each.

MULTI-COLORED SOUVENIR emblem, designed by Explorer Scout Michael Ramey of Explorer Post 6, is on sale for $1 in the area. The emblem was designed to promote interest in the 75th anniversary celebration of Granite City and to raise funds for Boy Scout Troop 41, sponsored by the Mitchell PTA. Those interested in buying the emblem may contact any member of the Mitchell troop committee or Floyd Jordan, 200 Warson Lane (931-2897).

Ethics Panel Studying How To Regulate Campaign Gifts

By RAY SERATI
Copley News Service

Springfield—The Illinois legislative government ethics committee is expected to study the workings of a Kentucky law which has proven to be successful in governing campaign contributions.

The committee is headed by Rep. George W. Lindberg, R-Crystal Lake. The Kentucky Law, which is serving as a model for proposed legislation in other states, will be one of several to be considered by the committee when it meets.

Illinois' governmental ethics was the center of some discussion with legislators in the first six-month session of the 77th General Assembly. Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie sought some tough ethics legislation for those in Illinois government. The measure got through the Senate but then was sent to a subcommittee of the House Executive Committee.

The proposed legislation was introduced early in the session but was held up in a Senate subcommittee headed by Sen. Thomas Lyons, D-Chicago. During the closing days of the session, the Senate passed the proposed legislation and sent it to the House.

When the legislature returns to work on Oct. 5, more discussion is expected on the proposed ethics legislation of Gov. Ogilvie.

The major question is whether or not there will be enough support in the House to get the legislation passed. At one time, it appeared the legislation would not be able to muster the needed support in the Senate. But when the time came there were enough votes to get it through.

What has added the ethics spotlight is the report that New Jersey financier and race track official, Philip J. Levin, made campaign contributions to both political parties in Illinois.

The alleged donations came while Levin was supposedly under investigation by the Illinois Racing Board. The finding of $800,000 stashed in boxes in the hotel apartment of the late Secretary of State Paul Powell, Vienna, also has added to what some say is a need for financial disclosure laws in Illinois.

GOP Reorganization Meet

Reorganization of the Madison County Young Republicans Club will be considered in a meeting to be held Thursday in Vanzo's Tap Room, Edwardsville. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. and will be open to persons 18 to 36 years of age. Further information may be obtained from Edward Phillips at: 466-0697; Danny Schmidt at 462-9172, or Robert Claus, 345-0828.

State Gets Grant For Compiling Labor Statistics

William E. Rice, Regional Director of the Bureau of Labor Statistics has announced grants to three states in the Federal-State Cooperative Occupational Safety and Health Statistics Program.

The Illinois Department of Labor and the Illinois Industrial Commission were granted $23,000, the Michigan Department of Labor was granted $25,000 and the Wisconsin Department of Industry, Labor and Human Relations $33,700. The grants will be used for planning the statistical and record keeping program required under the Williams-Steiger Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970.

Under the Act, employers are required to maintain accurate records (and make periodic reports) of work-related deaths, injuries, and illnesses. The Secretary of Labor in consultation with the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, will develop and maintain an effective program of collection, compilation, and analysis of statistics on work injuries and illnesses. In so doing, he may make private grants or contracts and grants to States or political subdivisions thereof.

Club Seeks Parents Without Partners

Parents Without Partners, a national organization geared to aid in the emotional and social needs of parents who are without partner, has a chapter in Granite City and invites prospective members to attend meetings, a spokesman for the club said this week.

Area residents eligible for membership are invited to attend the chapter's next session, set for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the American Legion Post 113 Hall, 23rd Street and Madison Avenue.

An interesting and unusual program has been arranged to be followed with a social hour and refreshments, a club officer said. "Sign-in time" is between 7:30 and 8 p.m. with the meeting to start promptly at 8 p.m.

Designated Granite Chapter 470 of Parents Without Partners, the local club as all chapters affiliated with the national organization has specific rules for membership, it was explained.

To be eligible, members must be a parent and single by being widowed, divorced, separated, or never married. Custody or age of the children is not a factor for membership, the spokesman noted.

The structure on the SIU-SW campus will be fabricated by Air-Tech Industries, Inc., a subsidiary of Walter Kiddie and Co., Inc., of Clifton, N. J.

The "bubble" will be 118 feet by 156 feet and will be located northwest of the Science Building in the central academic area. The contract calls for delivery of the structure within 70 days.

The temporary building will be used for informal recreation for students and for physical education classes until a permanent physical education building can be erected. Funds for the structure will come from the Student Welfare and Recreational Facility building trust fund.

A $55.7 million budget request for buildings and grounds improvements during fiscal year 1972-73 at the two SIU campuses also was approved here Friday.

The proposed budget will be forwarded to the Illinois Board of Higher Education. Current instructions from the Higher Education Board call for submission of capital funds budgets by state universities immediately following their July board meetings.

Chancellor Robert G. Layer, in asking improvements totaling $24.25 million for the Carbondale campus, gave top priority to remodeling the old Life Science Building, converting it to medical instruction; construction and equipment of Security Services Building; headquarters for the campus police; and a Phase III Heating Plant.

Only other major building planned for the fiscal year and in 30th place in priority listing was a $5.5 million Natural Resources Building.

Most of the items on Layer's 81-item list call for remodeling, additions and utilities improvements. He proposes expenditure of $11.28 million in Illinois Building Authority funds and a $12.96 million in general revenue.

Arson Attempt At Phone Company Fails

Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. investigators are searching today for two youths, described as being about 19 years of age, who were seen throwing two flaming torches onto the roof of the Pontoon Beach switching substation at 11:30 p.m. Saturday.

The torches, described as sticks about two feet long and wrapped with kerosene or gasoline-soaked rags, burned eight-inch circles in the roofing, but had burned out by the time firefighters from the Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department arrived. No damage to the building was caused.

The Pontoon Beach Police Department prepared a report on the incident based on the statement of a woman who was driving by the substation and witnessed the incident. The report was released today to T. Edward Umphres, secretary manager of Southwestern Bell, for investigation.

Phone Strike in 3rd Day; Little Progress

The strike of Communication Workers of America against Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. went into its third day today as negotiators reported little progress during weekend talks.

The strike against Southwestern Bell began officially at 12:01 a.m. Saturday, although virtually all workers had been off the job since Wednesday by refusing to cross picket lines set up by Western Electric Co. employees.

Approximately 50 employees in the Granite City district of Southwestern Bell are affected by the strike. Supervisory employees are providing service which, thus far, has shown only slight effects from the walkout.

On strike are approximately 60,000 CWA members of the six-state Southwestern Bell system, with 8,000 of those in the Illinois-Missouri metropolitan area.

More Needy Students Get Lunches than Planned

Illinois has reached more needy children with free or reduced price school lunches than the total number originally thought qualified to receive them, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reports.

In April this year more than 380,000 Illinois children were served lunches for which USDA and the State of Illinois paid all or the major portion of the cost. Estimates of the number of children to receive this aid, made in March, placed the sum at 285,000.

This figure was based on mandatory semi-annual estimates made by the local school officials and reported to the Illinois State Department of Public Instruction. Administration of all USDA Child feeding programs, including the National School Lunch Program, is under this agency jurisdiction in Illinois.

The April total was reached despite the fact that 908 of Illinois' 4,022 schools are still without any form of child feeding. Food and Nutrition officials are urging the state agency to increase its efforts so that all schools will join the National School Lunch Program.

"In this way we will establish the means so that all eligible needy youngsters get a free or reduced price lunch," Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Richard Lyng said.

This goal is one not far from sight if cooperation from local school officials and state agencies continues, Lyng pointed out. Nationally, 94% of the estimated 7.9 million needy children whose schools participate in the National School Lunch Program are getting free and reduced price lunches.

These children whose families are considered to have incomes too low to afford the regular cost of a school lunch. An additional 16.9 million children's families paid the regular price during April.

Report on Selection

MRS. RICHARD C. REINHARDT, the former Claudene Hancock. Her wedding was an event of Saturday at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

Miss Claudene Hancock, Richard Reinhardt Wed

Miss Claudene Hancock and Richard Reinhardt were married Saturday in an afternoon ceremony taking place at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

The parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Claud Hancock, 1811 Venice Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. Milton G. Reinhardt, 1 Bermuda Lane.

The Rev. Lawrence Mattingly heard the vows of the couple at 2 o'clock in a setting of white summer flowers arranged on the altar and white satin bows on the pews.

A gown of imported French voile was worn by the bride. It was fashioned with panels of schiffli embroidery in the front and back, and a high neckline.

The long, full sleeves repeated the eyelet trim, ending in narrow lace-trimmed cuffs. The lace also bordered the neckline and small covered buttons sealed the Empire bodice.

A wide panel of eyelet embroidery finished the back of the sweep train.

A profile of lace and pearls secured the bride's long cathedral veil of illusion. She held a colonial bouquet of yellow roses and white carnations and daisies with a corsage center.

Mr. Hancock gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Betty Ann Baker, organist, and Miss Sandy Baker, soloist, cousins of the bride, provided a program of wedding music. The songs were "We've Only Just Begun", the theme from "Love Story", and the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. Gene Plont was matron of honor, and Mrs. Tom Brimberry, Mrs. Eldon Frisze, Mrs. Jerry LeMaster, Miss Jo Ann Sumnerford, Miss Lynne Reinhardt, and Miss Lorna Reinhardt, sisters of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids.

The attendants wore identical gowns of all-over print in the dominant colors of yellow, orange and green. The sleeveless bodices had scoop necks, and gold crossgrain ribbon encircled the waists, ending in side bows and streamers. The long skirts were finished with deep ruffles at the hemlines.

They carried white and yellow daisies and baby breath in wicker plateau baskets with lufs of shrimp ribbon. Natural straw hats and yellow streamers, with flowers and pom poms trimming the back.

Pamela Nash and Barry Raynor, cousins of the bride, served as flower girl and ring bearer. The former, dressed in white eyelet with short puffed sleeves, carried a small basket of flowers.

Michael Reinhardt was best man for his brother, and another brother, Steven Reinhardt, with Mike Hillmer, Phil Achenbach, and Tom Stieler, cousins of the bridegroom, and Edward Hancock, a brother of the bride, served as groomsmen. Ushers were Al Parry and Jim Corna.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hancock selected a pink linen dress. The bridegroom's mother was in peach crepe. Both wore white orchid corsages.

A reception was held at the American Legion Hall in Venice with Mrs. Gary Pryor in charge of the guest register.

The newlyweds will live in the Illinois Apartments.

The former Miss Hancock, a 1964 graduate of the Granite City High School, is employed in the offices of the Tri City Grocery Co.

Mr. Reinhardt graduated from the Edwardsville High School and presently is attending the Logan Chiropractic School in St. Louis.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stieler of Nashville, Tenn., Miss Ann Frazier of Alexandria, Va., Jim Reinhardt of Albany, N.Y., and J. K. Kutty of West Memphis, Ark.

It was noted that Mrs. Hackney's daughter, Mrs. Cydelle Mayfield, Springfield, Mo., gave birth to a son.

MRS. WILLIAM RUSSELL FREEMAN JR. Her wedding took place Saturday at the Tri-City Park Tabernacle. She is the former Felicia Legate.

Freeman-Legate Wedding At Tri-City Tabernacle

The wedding of Miss Felicia Dawn Legate, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Legate Sr., 2804 Willow Ave., and William Russell Freeman Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Freeman Sr., of Fort Smith, Ark., took place Saturday evening at the Tri-City Park Tabernacle with the Rev. Garland E. Mills officiating at the 6:30 ceremony in a candlelight setting.

Mr. Legate gave his daughter in marriage. She wore an Empire gown of polyester organza over taffeta. Venise lace in a delicate teardrop pattern trimmed the full sleeves, the bodice and the neckline. A detachable train of organza was outlined with lace and secured at the waist with a large bow of organza.

A shoulder-length veil of illusion was held in place with a fabric bow accented with seed pearls and the bride carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis centered with an orchid.

Miss Connie Legate, the bride's sister, as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Larry Beadle, Miss Pauline Legate, another sister of the bride, and Miss Melody Hamilton, a cousin, were dressed in yellow silk organza polyester.

The sheer bodices were embroidered with green and yellow daisy lace trim, as were the sleeves, and green satin streamers encircled the waists, ending in bows. They wore crocheted straw hats and carried wicker baskets of white and yellow daisies.

Shelly Sullivan, another cousin of the bride, and Kevin Freeman, the bridegroom's brother, were flower girl and ring bearer. The former was dressed as a miniature bride.

Larry Beadle was best man, and Jerry Fuller, Thomas Hoover, Gary Reidman, Jerry Legate, the bride's uncle, and Ricky Hamilton, a cousin, made up the list of groomsmen and ushers.

The candles were lighted by Matthew Legate, the bride's brother, and Buddy Spink.

The wedding reception was held at the VFW Hall and the newlyweds left for a trip to Arkansas and Oklahoma. Miss Nancy Strider was in charge of the guest book at the reception.

A graduate of the Granite City High School, the bride is employed at the Reese Drug Store in Bellemore Village. They will reside in Granite City.

Guests from out-of-town here for the wedding were the bridegroom's parents from Fort Smith, Ark., and Mrs. Sheila Freeman of Maudlin, Mo.

Pageant Schedule Is Announced for Miss GC

Miss Janice Elaine Albers — Miss Granite City — who is competing this week in the Miss Illinois Pageant at Aurora, has been assigned to the "C" division group of contestants, according to Jan. J. Langenstein, chairman of the local pageant.

Designation to the "A," "B" or "C" division determines the sequence of a candidate's appearance in the state contest, the Granite City Jaycee explained.

Miss Albers will compete in the swim suit segment in Wednesday evening's preliminary contest. Her talent presentation will be Thursday night and on Friday evening she will appear in the evening gown sequence and also take part in personal interviews with the judging panel, Langenstein advised.

50 Years Ago Summer Chautauqua Programs Here

JULY 19, 1921

The 1921 summer Chautauqua season is ready to begin in a tent on the corner lot at 20th and C Streets. It will include oratory, story-telling, humorous talks, musical offerings and frolics. The planning has been carried out by the local Chautauqua Association, whose president is John Kleinschmidt.

Lewis S. Haight, coach of Alton athletic teams since 1912, has been hired as coach at Granite City High School effective this fall. At present he is visiting his parents at their summer home in Michigan. Those 18 or Older Can Make Wills

(Tri-City and Illinois Bar Associations)

With all the talk about voting that you have up to seven and other rights at age 18, it is interesting to note that Illinois law already grants an 18-year-old the power to make a will. This right applies to both women and men.

So long as the person is of "sound mind and memory," the law permits him to draw up a will to bequeath his properties at the time of his death.

Illinois law provides for many different contingencies related to wills and their disposition. It even provides for circumstances not specifically covered by the will.

For example, children not mentioned in a will because they were born after it was drawn up are still protected by the law.

Unless they are specifically disinherited or other provision is made in the will, they are entitled to receive whatever would have come to them if there had been no will at all. Your rights to contest a will whose provisions you may disagree with also are protected.

Conference Offered on Tax Ruling

(Internal Revenue Service)

Q) I don't think the agent who examined my return was right in disallowing some of my deductions. Is there anyone else at the IRS I can see about this?

A) You may request a district conference to discuss the disputed deductions.

The way to do this is described on the notice you received explaining the proposed changes in your tax.

The conference provides you with an independent review of the questioned items, since the person representing the IRS at the conference is not part of the office that examined your return.

Q) Does the IRS automatically impose a penalty on a taxpayer who underpays his estimated tax installment?

A) A penalty of 6% per year is imposed by law for underpayment of installments of estimated tax except in certain situations.

The penalty does not apply if the amount is paid on time and (1) is at least 90% (95% for farmers or fishermen) of the amount due on the basis of the tax shown on the return for the taxable year.

(2) is at least as much as would have been paid if based on the tax shown on your 1970 return.

Or (3) is based on the tax computed by using your income for last year and this year's tax rates and exemptions.

For additional exceptions in unusual cases see Form 2210, Underpayment of Estimated Income Tax By Individuals, available at your IRS office.

Farmers and fishermen should use Form 2210F.

William M. Ebersoldt, as Levee President, Will Try to Bring About Sounder Policies

We are not sure whether to congratulate or console William M. Ebersoldt, Venice city clerk and an East Side Levee & Sanitary District trustee, who advanced Saturday to the levee presidency after seven years on the board.

Membership on the levee board has been booby-trapped with frustration and a court conviction for Mr. Ebersoldt, who deserved a better fate after long and effective service in municipal government.

He has been an influence for sounder levee district procedures but has been in the minority. East St. Louis area residents occupy three of the four filled seats on the board. Three other East St. Louisians were among the five who won a special election this year; the latter quietest so far has been prevented from taking control of the district despite an ouster order against the old board.

If the presidency enables Mr. Ebersoldt to prevail when he urges improved policies, it will be a boon to citizens and taxpayers. Already he has secured a $100,000 loan from the general fund and placed in a special account to fulfill the board's pledge to acquire right-of-way for Dobrey Slough drainage.

Isn't it strange how close some motorists drive ahead of you?

Attempt to Secure Additional Doctors May Be Aided by Opening of New Hospital Wing

The acute need for additional Quad-City area medical doctors, discussed in a news article in the last issue, is a matter of concern to both patients and doctors. Current efforts to attract additional physicians and surgeons should be expanded.

A plus-factor in the endeavor is the fact that St. Elizabeth Hospital expects to open its new wing this year. It will be a pleasure for present and new hospital staff members to work in such attractive, efficient, ultra-modern surroundings.

Eventually, when the new Southern Illinois University Medical School is operating at Springfield and Carbondale, this region may provide a more adequate number of doctors to serve the growing population. In the meantime, it will be up to the public, doctors, the hospital and other health authorities to try to prevail on more physicians to locate their offices in this community.

Real-Unreal Book Traces Fight for Justice for Improperly Miners

Local University Reaches Maturity; Trustees Vote to Grant Full Administrative Autonomy

The Southern Illinois University board took a bold, decisive step Friday in agreeing to grant total administrative autonomy to its two campuses, which at least for the present will remain under a single board of trustees.

The board showed full confidence in Dr. John S. Rendleman of the Southwestern campus, who will advance from chancellor to president. At the Carbondale campus, Dr. Robert G. Leyer, who has asked to be relieved of the acting chancellor position, will be acting president; the search for a successor will continue.

That the search for a Carbondale leader has lasted this long is a symptom of the times. There is a shortage of prospective chancellors and presidents despite the prestige and the liberal salaries and perquisites that go with the job; the annual turnover has risen to 30% and there were 100 resignations in the U. S. during a recent six-month period.

One of the factors in Dr. Rendleman's promotion is that his record has been the exception rather than the rule. His tenure has not been entirely devoid of hectic episodes, but the faculty and board have assumed the reins of their heads and a stable climate conducive to higher learning has been maintained.

The decision reached by trustees ends the services of an administrative council which has functioned since 1961. Morris became president emeritus; Dr. Morris is now even that title on Aug. 31, the day before the effective date of the new two-campus operation.

Dr. Clarence Stephens, the council chairman, and the other five members deserve praise for their skill and promptness in separating the once intertwined university administration into two orderly structures. Some joint functions remain to be studied but, in the main, the chancellors already have assumed the responsibilities they will encounter as presidents.

The historic occasion of the granting of operational autonomy sends thoughts back to 1957, when SIU began initial classes in Madison and St. Clair Counties. The 1960 statewide referendum authorizing $25 million for construction at the new campus was followed by busy years of preparation culminating in 1965 in the start of instruction on the 2,600-acre site.

The milestone which has been reached heralds the "coming of age" of a university, born in the modern era and uniquely equipped and situated to meet the higher education needs of Illinois' No. 1 population concentration, a busy and growing Illinois sector of the St. Louis metropolitan area.

The past surely is only a brief prelude to what will be a dynamic future—a future of service whose dimensions can only be guessed at by those who have nurtured SIU-SW and who have enabled it, in 1971, to rise and stand on its own feet.

Hardening of the heart is more aging than hardening of the arteries.

Best Wishes to Jubilee Queen at State Meet

Granite Cityans' best wishes go with Janice Albers, 1971 Miss Granite City and the Diamond Jubilee Queen, as she participates in the Miss Illinois pageant this week in Aurora. There is still competition for the title, which will be held in the state competition, which will begin tonight and continue through Saturday.

Why does it take two years to learn to talk and 50 years to learn when to keep quiet?

Blessed are they who were not satisfied to leave well enough alone; all progress the world has made is owed to them.

Hired gunmen are sent in to break the strike. The miners fight back and, within 50 pages, a half dozen people are being dissected from his farm during the Great Depression, is one in which the bloodshed miners' shacks huddle close to the coal mine in which they work.

The mine lies close to Glory, W. Va., an area in which Grubb has lived most of his life. In an effort to better their condition, the miners have gone on strike and, by doing so, have drawn on themselves the wrath of those who run the mine.

This unusual, paced development was suddenly given major impetus when power demands in the United States began to climb steeply in 1967.

Whereas consumption of energy in the United States has doubled in the last 20 years, it is now expected to be magnified sevenfold in the next 30—that is, by the turn of the century.

Such projections caused the AEC to launch an intensive development of a new type of breeder field as the best of all possible nuclear power plants. It produced the plans now contained in the President's energy programs.

It is the feasibility of this proposal, which has all forms of fuel for power production, there is heavy emphasis on the fast breeder reactor, that is the focus of the President's proposal that an additional $27 billion be added to the fiscal 1972 budget.

It is to be completed by 1980, the size of the most of the commercial light water nuclear power plants now operating in the nation.

At present, there are 22 nuclear power plants, providing nine million kilowatts or about 2.5% of the nation's 340 million kilowatt capacity.

Another 55 nuclear plants are under construction and 44 additional plants have been announced and their reactors ordered.

Both National Steel and GC Steel Have Links with Hanna Mining Co.

By BILL WINTER
Editor,
Press-Record

Both National Steel and GC Steel Have Links with Hanna Mining Co.

In the last issue we discussed the facilities and products of the National Steel Corp., which hopes to acquire Granite City Steel Co. in mid-August. Boards of both companies have approved the merger, and shareholders of the local firm are to vote July 28 on the proposal.

It may be of interest to talk a bit about the people as well as the buildings and equipment. About 12,000 production and maintenance employees at National's Great Lakes plant near Detroit, Mich., its plants at Portage, Ind., Buffalo, N. Y., and Terre Haute, Ind., and its ore mining operations are represented by the United Steelworkers of America.

Labor agreements covering these employees expire on various dates, beginning Aug. 1, 1971, and negotiations for new agreements are in progress.

Approximately 10,000 production and maintenance employees at National's Weirton, W. Va., and Steubenville, O., plant are represented by the Independent Steelworkers Union, Inc., an unaffiliated labor organization.

The labor agreement covering such employees expires on Aug. 1, 1971, and negotiations for new agreements are in progress.

National also has labor agreements with various unions representing 350 employees at its steel service centers, 500 at its aluminum fabricating plants and 475 at its coal mine operations.

Granite City Steel had 5,500 employees on March 31. It recognizes the United Steelworkers of America as the collective bargaining representative for 71% and the International Chemical Workers Union as the collective bargaining representative for 24% of its hourly employees.

Six other unions represent an aggregate of fewer than 300 employees.

There has been no strike at the Granite City Steel Co. plant since 1955, when employees represented by the United Steelworkers were out for 12 hours during a nationwide strike. Granite City Steel employees did not participate in the national strike that took place in 1969.

The International Chemical Workers Union had not been involved in any strikes since the acquisition in 1951 by Granite City Steel of its blast furnaces and coke plant until Oct. 1, 1969, when they went on strike for 33 days.

Accept for a short strike in 1970 by hourly employees of a small subsidiary, the other unions have not been involved in strikes during their history of gaining history with Granite City.

Farjeon's search, first for revenge for his wife and children and then for justice for the impoverished miners, is the major theme of this fascinating novel.

The writing is up to Grubb's normal fine quality, except in some of the overly-long love scenes.

The current labor agreement with the United Steelworkers of America may not be terminated by either party until 60 days after a new labor agreement has been reached between the United Steelworkers of America and the basic steel industry.

The labor agreement with the International Chemical Workers Union has a similar provision.

Granite City Steel has non-contributory pension plans for its hourly and salaried employees.

The pension costs representing current service costs and interest on unfunded past service liabilities were $13,900,000 for 1970 and $12,200,000 for 1969, according to the three months ended March 31.

The company's policy is to fund pension costs accrued. A change during the year 1970 in actuarial valuation factors had the effect of increasing net income for that year by $18,000.

At Dec. 31, 1970, the Granite City Steel Co. Pension Trust Funds had assets valued at $27,400,000.

The estimated unfunded past service liability as of the 1970 determination date of the plans was $32,500,000.

Present directors of National Steel would continue to serve following the acquisition.

The National board members, and the year they became directors, are:

President: George A. Silson, 1963; Executive Committee: Chairman Gilbert W. Humphrey, 1960; Executive Committee Members: Leon Falk Jr., 1946, and Newton F. Korhume, 1964; Vice-President: Albert J. Bendis, 1963; and Henry T. Bodman, Walter L. Ciesler and Henry L. Hillman, all 1988; Walter A. Marling, 1988; and Harry B. Cunningham, 1971.

Humphrey is board chairman of the Hanna Mining Co. and Marling is president of the same firm.

Cunningham is board chairman of the S. S. Kresge Co., Ciesler heads the board of the Detroit Edison Co., Bendis is chairman and president of Pittsburgh Coke & Chemical Co.

Bodman was the National Bank of Detroit board chairman before retiring from the local steel firm.

Enameling, An Ancient Art, Friends of Museum are Told

"Enameling as an art dates back to many years before the birth of Christ," Mrs. Joseph Dickman of Edwardsville told the Friends of the Madison County Historical Museum at a quarterly meeting Thursday in the Museum.

Mrs. Dickman explained how enameling was first accomplished and various methods that have been used during past centuries. She described particularly the making of cloisonne and champleve, and exhibited pieces from her own collection to illustrate her talk.

Excavations have unearthed many art treasures which show great antiquity, she stated.

Oriental and French pieces show the greatest artistry, she said, and their methods have spread to other countries. It is not a craft employed to any great extent in the United States, but Mexico produces some very fine work the speaker noted.

Enameling, Mrs. Dickman continued, is used for articles such as religious treasures of many kinds, pieces of Chinese, Japanese, Turkish, French, English and German work were in also had samples of her own work.

Electric Heat—Prestige that's Practical

The new Professional Office Building in Danville features the comfort of Electric Heat.

These commercial offices are typical of the handsome new buildings springing up in Illinois. The design is modern and functional. And the builders use the same concept in selecting a heating system. It's Electric Heat, of course. There is individual temperature control with thermostats in every office area. That's prestige. And practical: you heat only the area that's being used. Electric Heat takes up no useable space. With today's building costs, that's pretty practical too. If you're planning any kind of building or remodeling, get the full story on Electric Heat now. Our Commercial Sales Representative has the answers. No charge or obligation. Just call our office.

PRUNING RHODODENDRONS AND AZALEAS

Rhododendrons and azaleas should be pruned after they flower to control size and maintain annual bloom.

Rhododendrons can be lightly pruned to maintain size by removing occasional top branches each year. One or two cuts will remove a prominent shoot and shift the emphasis to strong side limbs. Remove the old flower clusters to promote new shoots.

Azaleas should be pruned immediately after flowering. Remove a few of the largest branches each year to provide room for vigorous new growth. Remove entire branches to the large stem or crown. Remove old flowers and occasional crosslimbs to complete the job.

SUMMER TREE CARE

Borers are a natural threat to trees weakened by transplanting or natural disasters. Borers naturally occur in Birch, Dogwood, Maple, Lilac and flowering fruit trees. Natural control of borer occurs when trees are vigorous and free of injuries. Whenever a tree loses its advantage these insects can invade and cause a tree to die.

Spray monthly with dimethoate, (Cygon or De-Pent), or every two weeks with carbaryl (Sevin) starting in late May through late July. Increase the concentration of carbaryl by 50%. Drench the stump, large branches and trunk. Concentrate on injuries and rough areas.

SWAPPING IRIS

Arrange a deal to add new colors to your collection but postpone the transplanting until August. Spring transplanting will spoil the growth pattern of iris and discourage next years flowers. Late summer transplanting or carbaryl in early spring will doesn't harm flowering and is timely to add fertilizer and remove weeds.

Seasonal maintenance of iris plantings involves clipping the foliage in early fall and an annual application of fertilizer. Some gardeners mow the foliage with a lawn mower but experts feel 6 to 8 inch stubs is more beneficial. A pound of tree and garden fertilizer per 100 square feet of flower bed scattered over the bed is the final ingredient.

INVADING INSECTS

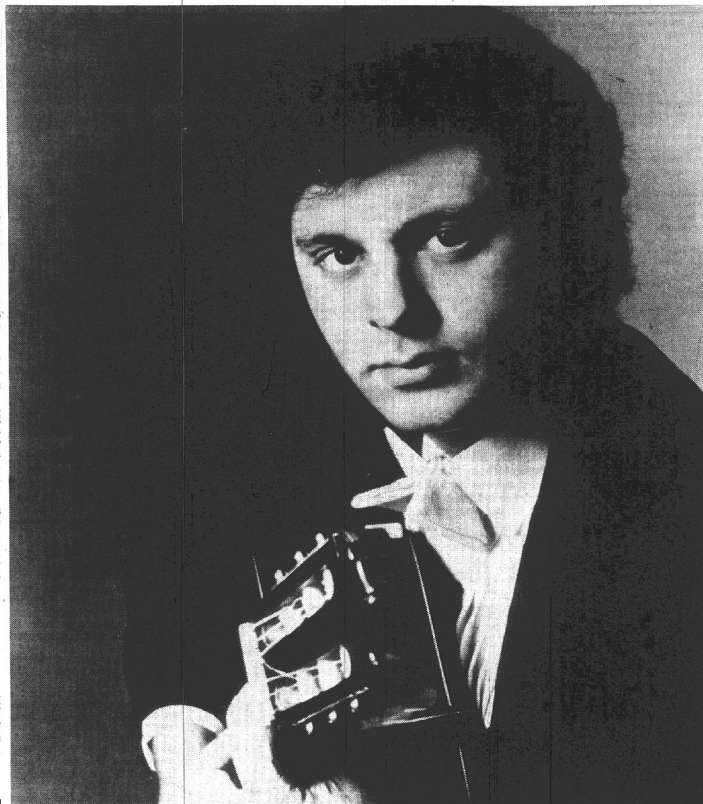

A variety of insects including ants, roaches (waterbugs), spiders, and crickets often move into homes during the summer. Broods of developing insects are always exploring for new homes and can easily use minute cracks in the foundation and around screens to move in. One foundation spray with liquid chlordane will control these insects before they can get in. Apply the chlordane to the outside foundation and treat a narrow band of soil. Concentrate on the steps and front porches. Look for cracks or small openings.

One application will last 3 months or longer. If crickets are common in your area make another application in early fall.

Foundation sprays with chlordane is not recommended if systems or dug wells are near the foundation.

VARNISHED BROWN GLOBES

Varnished brown globes wrapped around twigs like stale chewing gum are next years tent caterpillars. The cycle from worms and tents to eggs for next years generation is complete when you find these varnished egg clusters on your shrubs. If you see a generous scattering of brown globes on your plants there is no need for alarm until spring. One shot of malathion or carbaryl in early spring will provide easy control.

Judy Collins, folk singer-turned-singer of contemporary art songs, was well received at the Mississippi River Festival Thursday evening, although the big crowd of 10,313 was not quite as enthusiastic as during an appearance by her in a previous MRF season.

$648,500 Bid on Repairs to Canal Banks and Dikes

Col. Guy E. Jester, new district engineer, U.S. Army—Engineer District, St. Louis, announced Friday that bids have been opened in the district office for minor repairs to levees, dikes and ditches in the vicinity of the Chain of Rocks Canal, Mississippi River, miles 181.5 to 195.0.

The apparent low bid of three bids received was submitted by Eugene Luhn & Co. Columbia, Ill. Its bid was $648,500.

The relevation work includes minor bank grading; placing paving stone on levee berms in areas damaged and eroded by wave wash and prop wash; placing paving stone to the top of the high bank in areas eroded by wave wash; and placing quarry-run stone blanket to stabilize slopes.

Dike repairs include placing quarry-run stone on the existing toe dike to raise the crown elevation and repair a dike head with quarry-run stone.

The work site is located in Madison County in the vicinity of the Chain of Rocks Canal. The work is expected to be completed within 270 calendar days after the contractor has received written notice to proceed.

The new Miss Granite City left in a sparkling new automobile, furnished by Mathews Chevrolet, which will function as her official car while at the state beauty pageant.

She was accompanied to Aurora by her assigned chaperone, Mrs. Pat Fry of the Granite City Jaycees, her mother, Mrs. Joyce Albers, and her 17-year-old sister, Joanne.

Activities Restricted

During the week-long pageant, Miss Albers' sole contact with the outside world, other than at prearranged functions connected with the state contest, will be through Mrs. Fry. Restrictions governing the activities of state candidates are strictly enforced.

"Even my mother and sister are not allowed to get in touch with me during the contest," Miss Albers commented, "so all the support I can get from the people at home will be greatly appreciated."

Local residents wishing to send Miss Granite City cards, telegrams or flowers may do so by sending the messages to the Miss Illinois Pageant, Aurora College, Aurora, Ill. 60007.

To launch the full week of events, about 50 local contest winners were expected to register yesterday and today at the pageant headquarters.

A parade is scheduled for this evening, permitting Aurora residents their first glimpse of the 1971 title hopefuls as the girls are escorted through the downtown business area in convertibles. An orientation session for the candidates and officials also is set for today.

Rehearsals Tomorrow

Rehearsals, a necessary part of the pre-contest preparation, get under way tomorrow, allowing the contestants an opportunity to familiarize themselves with different surroundings and to sharpen their performances for the big days ahead.

The first preliminary contest will be staged Wednesday evening, preceded by a reception and the start of a series of interviews with the contest judges. The poise, intelligence and personality of the girls are closely scrutinized by the judging panel during these interviews, Mrs. Fry explained.

Contestants are divided into three groups—A, B and C—which dictates their rehearsal and interview schedules and the order of appearance in the three preliminary events.

Ten semi-finalists, chosen from the candidates in the three-day preliminary contests, will repeat the three phases of the pageant—swim suit and evening gown appearances and talent presentations—on Saturday night, climaxed by the crowning of the new Miss Illinois.

During today's orientation session, Miss Granite City and the other contestants will become acquainted with the stringent rules governing the state pageant—rules which are intensified at the Miss America Pageant in September and are designed to protect the privacy
